The Eagles have been flying high this year. The main reason for such a successful year is that many of the T.C.C.A. students have had their eyes on the Lord.

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength \ldots

The Director's Direction

School administration is thought of, in the minds of most people, as "running a school." To me Christian school administration is a matter of sensitivity to others.

First and foremost one must be sensitive to the Lord. He is the most important consideration. It is because of His love for believers — especially young ones — that we must have a heart for the student. The student cannot be effectively taught without prepared teachers and supportive parents working in a cooperative spirit. All of these make up the group to which an effective administrator must be sensitive. His direction must come from God and be carefully followed as it relates to student, teacher, and parents.

Only as Christ reigns in the hearts of all can a Christian school be truly Christian. This is our goal for Twin City Christian Academy.

MR. WASS

I believe there is a spirit of co-operation, that our teachers are prepared and that parents are supportive. Without question, the Lord desires to direct all of us (Psalm 32:8-9). When we allow Him to direct, we can only have success in His eyes — this is true success. Until the Lord's return, let's work together with Him to make Twin City Christian Academy all that He wants it to be.

MR. DELANEY

1 Peter 2:21 "For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow His steps."

It is the desire of T.C.C.A. that every student follow in the steps of our Lord Jesus Christ. He is our standard, to follow any other would be vanity.

ACTIVITIES

OUR FIRST ANNUAL EAGLE RETREAT

Bro. Scott Ziegler delivered some amazing messages that really spoke to the hearts and lives of everyone at T.C.C.A. Not only were the messages inspiring but the activities were an enjoyment to all.

In the short time at the retreat we not only revived old friendships but made new ones.

In all that occurred you could tell that the presence of God surrounded us.

The events of the retreat included the Gut Bucket Relay, Flour Power, swimming, horseback riding, and Knights in Shining Armour.

Over all we thought that the Eagle Retreat was a success and are looking forward to it becoming an annual event.

Three cheerful faces at 11:30 at night.

ECHO STAFF

She always has her mouth open.

Excluding the editor and Mr. Aynes, there were five other people on the staff. Mindy Smith was the layout editor. She was responsible for laying out the many pages of this yearbook, which is no easy job. Quite unique about Mindy is the way she laughs. We always got a big kick out of hearing her laugh and then hearing Tom try to mock her.

Dreena Busch was the photo editor. Her responsibilities were to help pick out pictures to go in the yearbook as well as work along with the photographer to set up pictures. Dreena was so quiet that I sometimes forgot she was around. But when I did see her she was always busy or wanting to be busy.

Sheila Dodson was the business editor. What a tremendous job! She did an excellent job keeping business organized. Something we will never forget about Sheila is her ability to forget her socks for P.E.

Imagine having to take, develop, and print over 700 pictures that had to meet the approval of Mr. Aynes. That was Tom Horton's job. He did an exceptional job of capturing our memories of 1986-87. A special thanks goes to Mr. Raglin for his advice and help in the darkroom.

The copy editor of the staff was Wayne Davis, Wayne's job was to come up with some of the paragraphs along with captions under pictures in the yearbook. He also got the privilege (?) of typing the biggest part of the copy to send in to the yearbook company. He surely had a lot of patience. I guess I will always remember Wayne as Squiggles, a name he acquired during the year.

Of course we can not leave out the most important person, our advisor. Mr. Aynes was always there when we needed him and never lost his temper. No words can express our appreciation to him.

All in all, it was a superb year for the staff. Memories were made — good and bad — but the good outshines the bad. Being the editor was worth it all, though, and I would go it again if I had the chance.

— Ellen

This Yearbook is Dedicated to: Marvin and Joyce Patterson

Even though there were many possibilities this year for the dedication of our yearbook, we have chosen Marvin and Joyce Patterson. Despite the fact that their work often goes unnoticed, the students appreciate the manner in which they keep the school facilities clean.

Marvin Patterson, a very joyful man, can never be found not praising the Lord in work or in song Although the problems of the day may get tedious, he never fails to meet them with a grin.

Joyce Patterson, a sweet and virtuous woman, is always busy at work, and yet she is never unwilling to give help or advice to a student.

We thank the Lord for their presence and hard work at our school.

Much martificary Jeslie. It's been i great year Hope ya have same more! Min Dyn't he thurs in the Mike Wal The Hard will but to kut Julia in Bunt Lahe, to the strangert two leagest Congraters I have ever net nice Browing you Backy
